1. Scope of Agreement and Definitions

- 1.1. - 2.1. The Client hereby instructs HYCM to establish the Account on HYCM’s books in the name of the Client. The Client acknowledges and accepts that the HYCM may place your funds in our designated Client Money account in a different currency to your base currency. Such Client Money will be at least equal in value to your base currency and will comply with UK regulatory requirements. The Client acknowledges and accepts that the Account will be maintained in the base currency selected when the account was established and is the currency in which the Account balance is held.
- 2.2. The Client represents, warrants and undertakes that the Client is acting for the Client's sole benefit and not for or on behalf of any other person or entity, the funding for the Transactions belongs to the Client and all Transactions are and will be carried out for the sole benefit of the Client.
- 2.3. The Client is the only person or entity authorised or permitted to enter into Transactions for the account. If the Client appoints an agent, the Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that they shall be solely responsible for all acts and/or omissions of the agent, and neither HYCM nor any of its affiliates nor the officers, directors, managers, agents or employees of HYCM or any HYCM affiliate shall be liable to the Client for any such actions or omissions, whether or not within the scope of the agent’s authorisation.
- 2.4. If the Client is more than one person, all such persons shall be jointly and severally liable for all obligations of the Client under this Agreement. In such event (unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Client and HYCM) the sole person or entity authorised to enter into or close out Transactions for the Account is the first of such persons mentioned. Withdrawals from the Account (in accordance with Clause 9.1) may require the signatures of all persons identified as the Client and authorised.
- 2.5. You shall notify HYCM by email within 30 days, and promptly update any factual change in the validity of the information you have previously provided to us of a personal nature such as your contact information, email address, residential address or contact telephone number. You must notify us of any material changes to your financial profile that you have provided in your registration data. 3. Trading

- 3.1. You will be a user of HYCM’s Trading Platform and the specific terms applicable to each platform are set out in Schedule 4. You may enter into Transactions for the Account through the Trading Platform, or through other mobile platforms that may become available from time to time, in accordance with HYCM's standard practices and procedures in effect from time to time and notified to the Client through the Trading Platform and/or in Schedule 4 as applicable. HYCM is an execution only broker and as such all transactions will be executed on a principal-to-principal basis. All Transactions entered into are at the Client's sole responsibility, risk and expense and subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement as amended from time to time.

- 3.2. HYCM does not guarantee that any Transaction or Transactions can be entered into at any given price or at all but shall use its sufficient efforts to effect Transactions. We may in our absolute discretion and without further explanation to you refuse any Transaction and in particular we will do so if we consider in good faith that the Transaction would breach any credit or position limits imposed by HYCM with respect to the Account or that the resulting Transaction would be in breach of this Agreement or any law, regulation or rule applicable to HYCM, the Client, the Account or the Transaction.
- 3.3. The Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that (i) HYCM will enter into Transactions at its sole discretion and will act as principal with respect to all Transactions; and (ii) HYCM will not and does not provide any advice, consulting or intermediary services to the Client; (iii) HYCM may at its sole discretion cover any Transaction, in whole or in part, in any manner it considers appropriate, whether by way of set-off with a Transaction with or for another of its Clients or otherwise; and (iv) except to the extent required under any law or regulation applicable to HYCM or the Account, nothing in this Agreement or in the relationship between HYCM and the Client shall or shall be deemed to create any agency or fiduciary relationship between HYCM and the Client.
- 3.4. If any Transaction is not closed-out by the Client prior to 5:00pm Eastern Time on the business day such spot Transactions are entered into, HYCM will automatically rollover such spot Transactions to the next Value Date with adjustments made to take account of interest rate differentials between the currencies in the relevant currency pair, the direction of the trade and any storage or other fees that are applicable to the Account. A Transaction confirmation with respect to such rollover will be provided to the Client in accordance with Clause 13.1. If there are insufficient funds available in the Account to meet the interest rate adjustment costs of any Transaction, we may in our absolute discretion either close out the prior open Transaction or we may make a Margin Call on you in accordance with Clause 4.1.. A three day rollover fee is applied to all CFD's on Fridays, all Spot Forex and Bullion on Wednesdays, with the exception of USDCAD (US Dollar vs Canadian Dollar), USDRUB (US Dollar vs Russian Rouble) and USDTRY (US Dollar vs Turkish Lira), or any other spot currency pair with T+1 settlement period that may be offered by HYCM in the future, where a three day rollover fee is applied on Thursdays.

- 3.5. HYCM normally quotes bid prices (at which the Client can offer to sell) and offer prices (at which the Client can offer to buy) for each Transaction. These prices are determined by HYCM based on prices quoted in the Interbank Foreign Exchange Market for spot forex Transactions and for CFD Transactions and are based on prices quoted on the markets on which the underlying security, commodity or other instrument is traded. The difference between the lower, bid, price and the higher, offer, price is the "spread." For some Transactions spreads may change frequently. In any event HYCM has the right to vary its spreads at any time in its absolute discretion without notice.
- 3.6. Prices quoted by HYCM are set by HYCM in its absolute discretion. The Client may only offer to enter into a Transaction at the price currently quoted by HYCM. A price may change or cease to be valid at any time after it has been quoted and before the Client's offer to enter into a Transaction is accepted. Reference is also made to Clauses 20.2.2 and 20.2.3 below.
- 3.7. HYCM may provide a Market Execution service to you. If offered, you warrant that trades executed at market execution spreads can widen significantly and are affected by actual market conditions, which are beyond HYCM's control. The prices quoted by us will reflect what we perceive as the market price in an Instrument at that time as opposed to the indicative price you see on the platform at the time of your request for execution. We do not guarantee any maximum or minimum limits to the quoted spreads. In some circumstances, the spreads may not be representative of the examples given in the product information contract specification. At times of high volatility or dependent on the volume size of your trades, your trades will be executed at the next available price subject to slippage. Quotes for Market Execution are filled with minimum or no re-quotes, or in some instances it may not be possible to arrange an order for execution. Stop or Limit orders may also be affected by this. You acknowledge that each Transaction entered into must not result in exceeding any credit or other limit placed on your account. Transactions which the Client may offer to place are subject to maximum limits established in HYCM's absolute discretion from time to time by Notice provided to the Client from time to time via the Trading Platform.

- 3.8. We shall be entitled to rely on and act in accordance with any instructions, requests and notices (whether or not in writing and howsoever communicated) which we believe in good faith to emanate from you, an agent or a person duly authorised to instruct us or transact on your behalf.
- 3.9. It is possible that errors may occur in the prices quoted by us. In such circumstances, without prejudice to any rights either we or you may have under common law, neither you nor us will be bound by any Transaction which purports to have been made (whether or not confirmed by us) at a price which was, or ought reasonably to have been, known to either you or us to be materially incorrect at the time of the Transaction.
- 3.10. If at any time you are unable for whatever reason, to communicate with us we shall not be responsible for any resultant loss, damage or cost except where your inability to instruct us or communicate with us resulted from our fraud, willful default or gross negligence.
- 3.11. It is not possible to rollover all expiring CFD Transactions to the next contract month. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with CFD Transactions specifications and expiry dates and times, at your risk. If you do not close open positions in respect of an expiring CFD Transaction on or before the last trading day, subject to Contract Specification notification, we will automatically close your open positions as soon as we have established the Settlement Price of the expiring CFD Transaction.
- 3.12. The Settlement Price of the expiring CFD Transaction, will be (a) the last traded price at or prior to the close or the applicable official closing quotation or price in the relevant underlying market as calculated and stated by the relevant exchange; and (b) any Spread that applies to your account when such an expiring CFD Transaction is closed.
- 3.13. Details of the Spread that we apply when a particular expiring CFD Transaction is closed at the Settlement Price will be determined (a) by your account type; and (b) based on the standard Contract Specifications which are available upon request. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to familiarise yourself with the Contract Expiry Notification and any Spread that we may apply when we close your Transaction.
- 3.14. In order to maintain the adequate capacity of the HYCM trading platforms, you agree that you will not enter into any Transactions on our platforms which fall within our definition of Scalping. HYCM defines scalping as a trading strategy whereby profits are returned by taking advantage of internet latencies, delayed prices caused by technical issues or other conditions, or where both buy and sell orders are entered at, or nearly at the same time. Scalping is considered a serious breach of our Terms and Conditions, and as such, HYCM may in its absolute discretion close out, replace, reverse any Transactions or close out the Account with immediate effect.

- 3.15. HYCM does not guarantee that the placement of a Stop Loss will fully protect against excessive losses being incurred on your account. Stop Losses are intended to reduce risk. You should maintain adequate levels of free margin in your account to maintain open positions at all times.
- 3.16. In accordance with our regulatory obligations, we have categorised you as a retail client and therefore we have provided your account with additional investor protections in the form of an added negative balance protection mechanism across all your accounts. Our negative balance protection mitigates trading losses that exceed your account equity during volatile market conditions by automatically resetting negative account balances back to zero. HYCM reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to look across all your accounts and draw down on trading credits if available or reduce in strict proportion to losses incurred when resetting negative account balances back to zero, and by offsetting any deficit amounts from positive amounts before processing any withdrawals. It is possible that errors may occur, such as your account balance remaining in deficit. In such circumstances, please contact our Customer Services Team at accounts@hycm.com.

4. Margin Requirement

- 4.1. As a condition of the entry into each Transaction for the Account, the Client must provide and maintain in the Account sufficient margin as determined by HYCM in its sole discretion from time to time. It is also the Client's responsibility to ensure that each Transaction in the Account is fully margined at all times. If at any time the Account is short of margin, HYCM may either give the Client a Notice from time to time (a "Margin Call") or close all open contracts without prior notice if in our absolute discretion the circumstances so warrant. Margin Calls will not normally be made by telephone, but we reserve the right to do so.
- 4.2. Our margin requirements are set out on our Website and it is your responsibility to ensure that you understand how a Margin is calculated. During the lifetime of any CFD, we, in our absolute discretion, reserve the right to review and adjust the percentage of funding required or the rates at which interest is calculated on such CFD, with or without notice to you, especially in, but not limited to, volatile market conditions (see also 4.5 below). The margin requirement for an open position may increase or decrease at any time until the open position is closed. Spot positions that are open overnight may be adjusted to reflect the cost of carrying the position over. Details of such adjustments are available on our Website.

- 4.3. When the Account is opened, the Client will transfer into the Account a first margin deposit of not less than such minimum amount as may be established by HYCM from time to time and notified to the Client. Such first deposit may be made by bank transfer or credit card payment or such other method as may be agreed between HYCM and the Client. Such first deposit together with subsequent margin deposits made by the Client from time to time and any profits and losses from existing open and closed Transactions, credits and debits from daily rollovers, and charges from commissions, if applicable, shall serve as the guarantee for the performance of Transactions in the Account.
- 4.4. Unless otherwise agreed, margin must be paid in cash. Cash margin is paid to us as an outright transfer of funds and you will not retain any interest in it. Cash margin received by us will be recorded by us as a cash repayment obligation owed by us to you.
- 4.5. HYCM may, in its absolute discretion at any time change the minimum margin requirement or make a Margin Call requiring the Client to make further margin deposits in the Account. The Client shall if requested by HYCM, make further margin deposit.
- 4.6. We reserve the right to change the way in which we calculate Margin Requirements at any time, for example, and without limitation, in response or anticipation of the following:
 - (a) Economic news;
 - (b) Changes in volatility or liquidity of the underlying market, or general financial markets;
 - (c) A changing in your dealing patterns;
 - (d) Your exposure being concentrated in a particular underlying market;
 - (e) Any changes in applicable regulations

4.7. We will not accept any third-party payments made in respect of funding your account. Similarly, we will not pay out any funds from your account to any third party.

5. Margin Close-Out Level

- 5.1. If the Margin Level for your Account reaches or falls below the Margin Close Out Level, this will be classified as an Event of Default under clause 15. In such circumstances we may, among other things, (i) close all or any of your Open Positions immediately and without notice, and/or (ii) refuse to execute new Trades until your Margin Level exceeds the Margin Close Out Level. It is your responsibility to monitor your Account(s) at all times and to maintain your Margin Level above the Margin Close Out Level. We will close your Open Positions at Our Price prevailing at the time when your Open Positions are closed.

- 5.2. The Margin Close Out Level applicable to your Account will be equal to the Margin Requirement applicable to your Account unless we alter your Margin Close Out Level. We may alter the Margin Close Out Level applicable to your Account at any time without any prior notice.

6. Market Abuse

- 6.1. Market abuse includes transactions where both buy and sell orders are entered at, or nearly at the same time, with the same price and quantity by the same party, or different but colluding parties, other than for legitimate reasons, unless the transactions are legitimate trades carried out in accordance with the rules of the relevant trading platform (such as crossing trades).
- 6.2. By trading with us you are likely to be subject to various market abuse regimes. Accordingly, you must not carry out any trading activity on the basis of inside information or carry out any trades in order to create a distorted market or misleading impression in relation to the price of financial instruments.
- 6.3. You undertake to familiarise yourself and comply with any Applicable Regulations concerning the short sale of securities if you seek to execute a CFD or Financial Spread Bet Trade with a short securities position which we may hedge with a short sale of securities you will ensure that your use of the Electronic Service will not result in a breach by us of any Applicable Regulations concerning the short sale of securities.
- 6.4. We may hedge our liability to you by opening analogous positions with other institutions or in the Underlying Market. The result of our doing this is that when you open or close a Transaction relating to a Financial Instrument with us, your Transactions can, through our hedging, exert a distorting influence on the Underlying Market for that Instrument, in addition to the impact that it may have on our own prices. This creates a possibility of market abuse and the function of this Term is to prevent such abuse.
- 6.5. For the purpose of complying with legal and regulatory obligations we may in our absolute discretion, and without being under any obligation to inform you of our reason for doing so, close any Trades that you may have open and may, if we so elect, treat all Trades closed under this clause 6 as void.

- 6.6. We will treat all your Transactions that meet the circumstances set out in this Term as void if they are Transactions under which you have secured a profit, unless and until you produce evidence that satisfies us that you have not, in fact, committed the breach of warranty and/or misrepresentation the suspicion of which was the ground for us taking action under this Term. For the avoidance of doubt, if you do not produce such evidence within the period of three months from the date on which action is taken by us under this Term, all such Transactions will be finally null and void as between you and us; or
- 6.7. You acknowledge that it would be improper for you to deal in the Underlying Market if the sole purpose of such a transaction was to impact on our bid or offer prices, and you agree not to conduct any such transactions.
- 6.8. You will not use any device, hardware, software, algorithm, strategy, collusion or deception, the use of which is intended, whether directly or indirectly, to cause or influence us to provide our Platform or accept any trade in a way in which or on terms on which we would not otherwise do so.

7. Improper Behaviour

- 7.1. We do not permit the use of the platform for unfair arbitrage activity or otherwise taking advantage of internet delays, using any other manipulative or abusive behaviour which could adversely impact on fair and orderly trading.
- 7.2. You will not take any action that could create a false impression of the demand for or value of a Product or send orders which you have reason to believe are in breach of applicable laws and regulations.

8. Market Disruption

- 8.1. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “Disruption Event” is the occurrence of any of the following circumstances or events:
 - 8.1.1. the Underlying Market related to the Market you are trading in or the Exchange on which the Underlying Market trades, whether directly or indirectly (example: on a future or option on such Underlying Market), is the subject of a takeover offer or a merger offer; or the issuer of such Underlying Market or operator of Exchange has entered into or is the subject of insolvency or liquidation proceedings (or any Act of Insolvency has occurred in relation to such issuer or operator); or

- 8.1.2. any event which disrupts the trading of the underlying market or trading on the Exchange including the suspension of or limitation of trading by reason of movements in price exceeding limits permitted by the relevant Exchange, or of regulatory or other intervention, or early closure of the Exchange or otherwise, and/or any other event causing market disruption and which is a material disruption.
- 8.2. If we in our sole and absolute discretion determine that a Disruption Event has occurred on any day on which a market is scheduled to be open for its regular trading session, then such day shall be a “Disrupted Day”.

9. Withdrawal from and Closing of the Account by the Client

- 9.1. The Client may request HYCM to permit withdrawal from the Account. In calculating the amount available for withdrawal, HYCM will take into account the balance in the account where the withdrawal is requested and the balance/s in other account / accounts maintained by the customer minus trade credits (provided by HYCM for ‘trading only’) in all accounts. All withdrawal requests should be made in writing and in a form acceptable to us. Without prejudice to any rights of HYCM under this Agreement, HYCM shall transfer such excess amounts (if any, and as determined by HYCM in its sole discretion), less any applicable Bank or other transfer fees, according to the Client's instructions within seven (7) Business Days from the date of receipt of the applicable written instruction. For the avoidance of doubt any such transfer by HYCM is subject to (i) applicable laws and regulations including but not limited to anti-money laundering, tax authorities’ requirements for deduction at source and exchange control foreign currency transfer restrictions, and (ii) the Client providing full identification documentation as required by HYCM.
- 9.2. If the Client wishes to withdraw excess funds (calculated as explained in clause 9.1 above from the Account) and close the Account, the Client shall do so by notifying HYCM. Following the transfer (if any) made by HYCM pursuant to such request, HYCM shall close the Account in accordance with Clause 16.

10. Inactive and Dormant Accounts

- 10.1. An account shall be considered as Inactive in the absence of any activity for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days. Any Inactive Account, holding zero balance / equity, shall be treated as dormant accounts. The Company reserves the right to close your account if classified as dormant within HYCM.

- 10.2. For the re-activation of Inactive and dormant accounts, you must inform us accordingly in writing. We reserve the right to request updated identification document and information required by the relevant laws and regulation prior proceeding accordingly.

11. Charges & Commissions

- 11.1. Charges and commissions applicable to your account will be provided to you in good faith, agreed with you before entering into any transaction (subject to clause 4.8 above) and will be shown on the statement sent to you. In such an event, the Commissions will be charged to the Account. Commissions and charges may be changed from time to time. Your approval may not be always sought. If any charges are not expressed in money terms (but for example as a spread), the Client should ask for a written explanation, including appropriate examples, to establish what such charges are likely to mean in specific money terms. Further information in respect to costs and charges are provided in an aggregated form on the Company's Website (expressed in both as a cash amount and as a percentage) as well as within the Company's Terms of Business, which constitutes part of this Agreement. The Company is in a position to provide you with an itemized breakdown of costs and charges upon your request. The respective request should be addressed to accounts@hycm.com.

- 11.2. Spreads: Prices quoted to you by HYCM will include a spread, mark-up, or mark-down when compared to prices that HYCM may receive or expect to receive if it were to cover your transactions with, for example, a trade in the forex interbank market. The spread is dynamic and may factor in the liquidity in the external markets and the competitor pricing. Our spreads are set at our absolute discretion, since we are acting as a market maker, and any changes are effective immediately. Further details in regards to the spreads applicable for each Financial Instrument are specified on our Website.

- 11.3. Rollover Fees: As per the provisions of Clause 3.4 of this Agreement, in case where any Transaction is not closed-out by the Client prior to 5:00pm Eastern Time on the business day such Transactions are entered into, HYCM will automatically rollover such Transactions and apply the relevant fee. The size of rollover fee is specified for each instrument on our Website. It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with our rollover terms and conditions. A three day rollover fee is applied to all CFD's on Fridays, all Spot Forex and Bullion on Wednesdays, with the exception of USDCAD (US Dollar vs Canadian Dollar), USDRUB (US Dollar vs Russian Rouble) and USDTRY (US Dollar vs Turkish Lira), or any other spot currency pair with T+1 settlement period that may be offered by HYCM in the future, where a three day rollover fee is applied on Thursdays.

- 11.4. Inactivity Fee: Inactive Accounts, as defined above under clause 10.1 of this Agreement, will be charged an administrative fee of US $10.00 or the equivalent value in your account base currency every month, until account activity resumes. For reimbursement of inactivity fees, please refer to our Terms of Business.

- 11.5. Currency conversion rates: Investing in financial instruments with an underlying asset listed in a currency other than your base currency entails a currency risk as the financial instrument is settled in a currency other than your base currency and hence the value of your return may be affected by its conversion into the base currency. The currency conversion rates used are determined by HYCM in its sole discretion on the basis of the then prevailing exchange rates.

- 11.6. Additional Costs: You should be aware of the possibility that other taxed or costs may exist that are not paid through or imposed by the Company. It is your sole responsibility to bear these additional costs.

- 11.7. Ex-Post disclosure: The Company will provide the clients on a monthly basis reports which take into consideration the actual costs and charges incurred by the client.

- 11.8. HYCM may, at its sole discretion, decide to make changes to the charges and commissions applicable to your account from time to time without prior notice to you. In such an event, these changes apply to each Transaction entered into or deemed outstanding between HYCM and the Client.

12. Inducements

- 12.1. When providing a service to a Client, the Company may pay and/or receive fees/commissions or other non-monetary benefits to/from third parties as far as permissible provided that these benefits are designed to enhance the quality of the offered service to the Client and not impair compliance with Company's duty to act in the best interest of the Client or their duty under the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

- 12.2. The Client is hereby informed that in the event where the Client has been introduced to the Company by a Partner (Introducer and/or Affiliate) and/or of Company's any third party, the Company may pay a fee and/or commission to its Partners and/or the Partner directly, for services rendered calculated on the basis of the volume traded and/or First Deposit and/or Revenue Share by the Client and/or otherwise and/or on the basis of the agreement concluded between the two parties. Upon request from the Client, the Company shall disclose further details.

14. Indemnification

- 14.1. Neither HYCM nor any of its affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees or agents shall be liable for any loss, damage or debt to the Client arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with this Agreement or any Transaction, except in the event of fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of HYCM, its affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees or agents. Nothing in this Clause 14.1 is intended to or shall operate to restrict any liability which cannot be excluded under the UK law or under the rules of the FCA in effect from time to time.
- 14.2. The Client agrees to indemnify and hold HYCM, and HYCM's affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, successors and assigns ("Indemnified Persons"), harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by the Indemnified Persons and each of them arising out of the Client's failure to comply with any and all of its obligations set forth in this Agreement and/or HYCM's enforcement against the Client of any and all of its rights under this Agreement.

- 14.3. The Client acknowledges and agrees that any oral information given to the Client concerning the Account, if given, may be unverified and incomplete and that any reliance on such information is at the Client's sole risk and responsibility. You should always seek for written confirmations. HYCM makes no warranty, express or implied, that any pricing or other information provided by it, through the Trading Platform or by telephone or otherwise is correct or reflects current market conditions. Furthermore, HYCM does not make any warranty or guarantee with respect to the Trading Platform and/or its content, including but not limited to, warranties for merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. If a quoting error (known to the Client or of which the Client should reasonably have been aware) occurs due to a mistake by HYCM or due to a computer or system malfunction, HYCM will not be liable for any resulting errors in the Client's Account balances. HYCM reserves the right to make such corrections or adjustments to the Account involved in any such error as it considers appropriate in its discretion. Any dispute arising from such quoting errors will be resolved on the basis of the fair market value of the underlying product at the time the error was made.
- 14.4. HYCM shall not be liable to the Client for any loss, damage or cost of any nature incurred by the Client directly or indirectly by any cause beyond HYCM's control, including without limitation, due to HYCM inability to perform any Transaction or the improper or partial performance of any Transaction due to technical reasons (such as, without limitation, damage or destruction to its computer systems, data or records or any part thereof, or for delays, losses, errors or omissions resulting from the failure or mismanagement of any telecommunications or computer equipment or software) or otherwise, absent gross negligence or willful default by HYCM.

15. Events of Default:

- 15.1. If at any time any of the Events of Default set out in Clauses 15.1 (a) or 15.1 (d) to (j) below occurs, then HYCM may exercise its rights under Clause 16.1. In the case of the occurrence of any Event of Default set out in Clauses 15.1 (b) or 15.1 (c) (each a "Bankruptcy Default"), the provisions of Clause 15.2 shall apply.

- (a) the Client fails (i) to make any payment (including without limitation a payment requested in a Margin Call) to HYCM when due; or (ii) to observe or perform any provision of this Agreement or any Transaction and such failure continues for two (2) Business Days after HYCM gives Notice of non-performance to the Client; or
 - (b) the Client commences a voluntary case or other procedure seeking or proposing liquidation, reorganisation, an arrangement or composition, a freeze or moratorium, or other similar relief with respect to the Client or the Client's debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, regulatory, supervisory or similar law, or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, conservator, administrator, custodian or other similar official (each a "Custodian") of the Client or any substantial part of the Client's assets; or
 - (c) an involuntary case or other procedure is commenced against the Client seeking or proposing liquidation, reorganisation, an arrangement or composition, a freeze or moratorium, or other similar relief with respect to the Client or the Client's debts any bankruptcy, insolvency, regulatory, supervisory or similar law (including any corporate or other law with potential application to the Client, if insolvent) or seeking the appointment of a Custodian of the Client or any substantial part of the Client's assets; or
 - (d) the Client dies, becomes of unsound mind, is unable to pay his debts as they fall due or is bankrupt or insolvent, as defined under any bankruptcy or insolvency law applicable to the Client; or any indebtedness of the Client's is not paid on the due date therefore, or becomes capable at any time of being declared, due and payable under agreements or instruments evidencing such indebtedness before it would otherwise have been due and payable, or any suit, action or other proceedings relating to this Agreement ("Proceedings") are commenced for any execution, any attachment or garnishment, or distress against, or an encumbrancer takes possession of, the whole or any part of the Client's property, undertaking or assets (tangible and intangible); or
 - (e) any representation or warranty made or given or deemed made or given by the Client under this Agreement proves to have been false or misleading in any material respect as at the time it was made or given or deemed made or given; or
 - (f) all information and/or documentation provided by the Client to HYCM is not true, accurate and complete in all material respects, including but not limited to the information provided in regards to your knowledge and experience in dealing in complex financial instruments, and all copies of documents provided by the Client to HYCM are not true copies of the originals; or

 - (j) any event of default (however described) occurs in relation to the Client under any other agreement with HYCM or any affiliate of HYCM.
- 15.2. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or at any time after HYCM in its absolute discretion considers that the Client has not performed (or HYCM reasonably believe that the Client will not be able or willing in the future to perform) any of the Client's obligations to HYCM, HYCM shall be entitled without prior notice to the Client:
- (a) to close out, replace or reverse any Transaction, buy, sell, borrow or lend or enter into any other transaction or take, or refrain from taking, such other action at such time or times and in such manner as, at HYCM's sole discretion, HYCM considers necessary or appropriate to cover, reduce or eliminate its loss or liability under or in respect of any open Transactions; and/or
 - (b) to treat any or all Transactions then outstanding as having been repudiated by the Client, in which event HYCM's obligations under such Transaction or Transactions shall thereupon be cancelled and terminated.
- 15.3. Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 15.2, HYCM may in its absolute discretion close out, replace or reverse any Transaction or close out the Account as if an Event of Default other than a Bankruptcy Default had occurred if it considers that any Transaction entered into for the Account was based on material non-public information, manipulation of market information or data, or any behaviour which in the good faith opinion of HYCM involved market abuse (as defined in the rules of the FCA) or other improper conduct.

16. Termination on Default

16.1. Termination on Notice

Without prejudice to Clause 15.2 and subject to Clause 16.2, at any time following the occurrence of an Event of Default, HYCM may, by Notice to the Client, specify a day (the “Liquidation Date”) for the termination and liquidation of Transactions in accordance with the provisions of Clause 16.3.

16.2. Automatic termination

Unless HYCM specifies otherwise, the date of the occurrence of any Bankruptcy Default shall automatically constitute a Liquidation Date (“Automatic Termination”), without the need for any notice by HYCM and the provisions of Clause 16.3 shall then apply automatically.

16.3. Calculation of Liquidation Amount

Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Date,

- (a) neither HYCM nor the Client shall be obliged to make any further payments under any Transactions which would, but for this clause, have fallen due for performance on or after the Liquidation Date and such obligations shall be satisfied by settlement (whether by payment, set-off or otherwise) of the Liquidation Amount;
- (b) HYCM shall (on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Liquidation Date) determine (discounting if appropriate), in respect of each Transaction referred to in Clause 16.3(a), its total cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain, in each case expressed in the Account’s base currency (the “Base Currency”) (and, if appropriate, including any loss of bargain, cost of funding or, without duplication, cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain as a result of the termination, liquidation, obtaining, performing or re-establishing of any hedge or related trading position) as a result of the termination, of such Transaction; and
- (c) HYCM shall treat each cost or loss to HYCM, determined as above, as a positive amount and each gain by HYCM, so determined, as a negative amount and aggregate all of such amounts to produce a single, net positive or negative amount, denominated in the Base Currency (the “Liquidation Amount”).

16.4. Payer

If the Liquidation Amount determined pursuant to Clause 16.3 is a positive amount, the Client shall pay it to HYCM and if it is a negative amount, HYCM shall pay it to the Client. HYCM shall notify the Client of the Liquidation Amount, and by whom it is payable, immediately after the calculation of such amount.

16.5. Other Transactions

Where termination and liquidation occur in accordance with Clause 16.3, HYCM shall also be entitled, at its discretion, to terminate and liquidate, in accordance with the provisions of Clause 16.3, any other Transactions entered into between HYCM and the Client which are then outstanding.

16.6. Payment

The Liquidation Amount shall be paid in the Base Currency by the close of business on the Business Day following the completion of the termination and liquidation under Clause 16.3 (converted as required by applicable law into any other Currency, any costs of such conversion to be borne by the Client, and (if applicable) deducted from any payment to the Client). Any Liquidation Amount not paid on the due date shall be treated as an unpaid amount and bear interest, at the rate as reasonably determined by HYCM to be the cost of funding such overdue amount. Interest will accrue on a daily basis and will be due and payable by the Client as a separate debt.

16.7. Base Currency

For the purposes of any calculation hereunder, HYCM may convert amounts denominated in any other Currency into the Base Currency at such rate prevailing at the time of the calculation as HYCM shall reasonably select.

16.8. Payments

Unless a Liquidation Date has occurred or has been effectively set, HYCM shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery scheduled to be made by HYCM under any Transaction for as long as an Event of Default with respect to the Client has occurred and is continuing.

16.9. Additional rights

HYCM’s rights under this clause shall be in addition to, and not in limitation or exclusion of, any other rights which HYCM may have (whether by agreement, operation of law or otherwise).

16.10. Application of netting to Transactions

This Clause 16 applies to each Transaction entered into or outstanding between HYCM and the Client on or after the date this Agreement takes effect.

16.11. Closing out

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if HYCM enters into any Transaction with or for the Client in order to close out any existing Transaction between HYCM and the Client then the respective obligations under both such Transactions shall automatically and immediately be terminated upon entering in to the second Transaction, except for any settlement payment due from one of HYCM or the Client to the other in respect of such close-out.

17. Termination on Notice

17.1. Subject to the provisions of any applicable law or regulation, either party may terminate this Agreement (and the relationship between HYCM and the Client) by giving written notice of termination with immediate effect.

17.2. Where either you or we provide notice to close your Account and/or end this Agreement under this clause 17, we reserve the right to refuse to allow you to enter into any further Trades or Orders which may lead to you holding further Open Positions.

17.3. In its absolute discretion HYCM may terminate this Agreement at any time in accordance with Clause 15.2 or Clause 16 as applicable if the Client fails to observe or perform any provision of this Agreement or in the event of the Client's insolvency or upon the occurrence of any other Event of Default.

17.4. Upon terminating this Agreement, all amounts payable by the Client to HYCM will become immediately due and payable including (but without limitation):

- (a) all outstanding fees and charges; and
- (b) any losses and expenses realised in closing out any Transactions or settling or concluding outstanding obligations incurred by HYCM including without limitation those incurred in exercising its powers under Clause 15.2 and/or Clause 16.

17.5. Termination shall not affect any outstanding rights and obligations between HYCM and the Client, and Transactions shall continue to be governed by this Agreement and any particular clauses agreed between HYCM and the Client in relation to such Transactions until all obligations under this Agreement and all Transactions have been fully performed.

17.6. If neither party does not exercise their right of cancellation, the Agreement will continue in effect until either you or we terminate the Agreement by either of us giving notice in accordance with clause 17, or by our exercising any of our other rights to terminate under this Agreement. There is no minimum or fixed duration of the Agreement.

18. Events of Force Majeure

18.1. We shall not be liable to you for any partial or non-performance of our obligations hereunder by reason of any cause beyond our reasonable control, such as technological or other system failures or in the case of Force Majeure Event, as defined below under Clause 18.2, provided that in such cases we shall, to the extent reasonably possible, act in line with our obligations to act for the best interest of our clients and treat you fairly. Following the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, we will inform the FCA and take reasonable steps to inform you.

18.2. Force Majeure Event means any even or circumstances outside our control, including but not limited to the following:

19. Common Reporting Standard and Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

19.1. Common Reporting Standard

Under applicable legislation and regulations based on the OECD Common Reporting Standard ("CRS"), we are obliged to collect certain information about the Financial Account Holder for the purposes of reporting. We have the right to provide such information to the local tax authorities and they may exchange this information with tax authorities of another jurisdiction(s) pursuant to intergovernmental agreements regarding the exchange of financial account information.

19.2. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Without limiting the foregoing, HYCM, is required to comply with statutory and regulatory obligations, based on the Intergovernmental Agreement between the UK and the United States for compliance with FATCA and as part of the automatic exchange of information between international tax authorities ("AEOI"). The Client accepts that HYCM, for the purpose of complying with FATCA, shall have the right to request any information or documentation reasonably required and the Client shall be obliged to provide the same to HYCM immediately. Please note that HYCM does not accept US Reportable Persons as its clients.

19.3 For the purposes of the following provisions, "AEOI" means:

- a) sections 1471 to 1474 of the US Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and any associated legislation, regulations or guidance, and any other similar legislation, regulations or guidance enacted in any other jurisdiction which seeks to implement similar financial account information reporting and/or withholding tax regimes;
- b) the OECD Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax Matters – the Common Reporting Standard (the "CRS") and any associated guidance;
- c) any intergovernmental agreement, treaty, regulation, guidance, standard or other agreement between the United Kingdom (or any United Kingdom government body) and any other jurisdiction (including any government bodies in such jurisdiction), entered into in order to comply with, facilitate, supplement or implement the legislation, regulations, guidance or standards described in sub-paragraphs a) and b); and

- c) any such forms or documentation requested by HYCM or its agents pursuant to paragraph (b), or any financial or account information with respect to the Client's Account with HYCM, may be disclosed to the UK Tax

Authority (or any other UK governmental body which collects information in accordance with AEOI) and to any withholding agent where the provision of that information is required by such agent to avoid the application of any withholding tax on any payments to HYCM;

- d) you waive, and/or shall cooperate with HYCM to obtain a waiver of, the provisions of any law which:
 - (i) prohibit the disclosure by HYCM, or by any of its agents, of the information or documentation requested from the Client pursuant to paragraph (b); or
 - (ii) prohibit the reporting of financial or account information by HYCM or its agents required pursuant to AEOI; or
 - (iii) otherwise prevent compliance by HYCM with its obligations under AEOI;
- e) if you provide information and documentation that is in anyway misleading, or you fail to provide HYCM or your agents with the requested information and documentation necessary in either case to satisfy HYCM's obligations under AEOI, HYCM reserves the right (whether or not such action or inaction leads to compliance failures by HYCM, or a risk of HYCM being subject to withholding tax or other costs, debts, expenses, obligations or liabilities (whether external, or internal, to HYCM) (together, "costs") under AEOI):
 - (i) to take any action and/or pursue all remedies at its disposal including, without limitation, suspension or termination of the Account; and

This indemnification shall survive the Client's death or closure of account with HYCM.

19.5. You may contact us for additional information and/or clarifications prior to the signing of this Agreement.

20. Regulatory Provisions

20.1. Client Money

- (a) We have categorized you, by default and unless otherwise specified and agreed between you and us, as a retail client and therefore in accordance with applicable law and subject to clauses 20.1b and 20.1c we will place an amount equal to your Total Equity minus your Trading Credits (as and if available and as and if displayed on the platform) into a client money bank account. We will deal with your money in accordance with the FCA's Client Money rules and guidance, which require us to hold it in a client bank account, separating your funds from ours. Such money may be held by a bank with other clients' money in a pooled client account.
- (b) We will exercise all due skill, care and diligence in selecting a third-party bank to use to hold Client Money and will periodically review the adequacy and appropriateness of any bank where your money is deposited, in accordance with the Client Money Rules.
- (c) We will carry out reconciliations at the close of business on each Business Day between money required to be held in the client money bank account and money that may be held on our own account in accordance with the FCA Rules, and any required transfer to or from the client money bank account in respect of your Account will take place on the following Business Day. We may carry out such reconciliations and transfers more frequently, should we reasonably consider that this is necessary to protect our or your interests.
- (d) We may hold funds you pay to us in unbreakable deposits (UDs) ranging from thirty (30) days duration but not exceeding ninety-five (95) days ("Long Term Deposit Accounts"). The risk of placing client money in a Long-Term Deposit account is that in the event of the firm's insolvency the process of pooling off client money cannot start until the account has matured. Only an appropriate proportion of client money will be held in such UD's, and all such amounts will continue to comply with the FCA Client Money rules at all times. The Company does not believe that this increases the liquidity risk of the Company in a significant manner.
- (e) You agree that we may cease to treat money held on your behalf as client money and release it from our client money bank account(s),
- i. if you have no positions and have not placed a trade in the previous six (6) years, and we have been unable to contact you. Such money will, however, remain owing to you and we will make
 - ii. If any amounts owed by you to us under the Agreement are due and payable to us, in accordance with the Client Money Rules we shall cease to treat as Client Money so much of any Client Money held on your behalf as equals the those amounts. You agree that we may apply that money in or towards satisfaction of all or part of those amounts due and payable to us. For the purposes of this clause, any such amounts owed by you to us under this Agreement become immediately due and payable, without notice or demand by us, when incurred by you or on your behalf.
- (f) We will not pay interest to you on any money held on your behalf or otherwise under clauses 20.1a, 20.1b or 20.1c and by entering into this Agreement you acknowledge that you therefore waive any entitlement to interest under the Client Money Rules or otherwise. Security interests, liens or rights of set-off are granted by the Company and are recorded within the Company's own accounts so as to ensure that the ownership status is clear, in the event of insolvency.

and retain all records of all balances released from client money bank accounts under this clause and will undertake to make good any valid claims against such released balances.

20.2. Order Execution

20.2.1. HYCM acts as the market maker and matched principal to all Transactions executed by you with HYCM in that HYCM, as facilitator, interposes itself between the buyer and the seller to the transaction in such a way that it is never exposed to market risk throughout the execution of the transaction, with both sides executed simultaneously and the transaction is concluded at a price where the facilitator makes no profit or loss, other than a previously disclosed commission, fee or charge for the transaction. It is HYCM's sole discretion to decide which types of Financial Instruments to make available and to publish to its platforms the prices at which these can be traded by its clients.

20.2.2. Transactions may only be executed during the time when the relevant Exchange where the Instrument is traded is open for business. HYCM's Trading Hours are displayed on our Website under the Product Specifications Section for each Instrument which may or may not be the same as the Trading Hours of

- the relevant Exchange. It is your responsibility to ensure you are aware of which Instrument may be affected.
- 20.2.3. HYCM does not accept any Orders outside the market hours of the relevant underlying financial instrument, and futures are traded in accordance with the trading hours of the exchange on which the underlying financial instrument is traded.
- 20.2.4. The time of day we use to define the start of a new trading day is Sunday 23:01 London time (23:01 GMT in winter, 22:01 GMT in summer) Details of the relevant trading hours are available on the website.
- 20.2.5. The manner in which HYCM will provide best execution of the Client's orders is set out in its Order Execution Policy (available online). HYCM will endeavour to provide the Client with a competitive execution capability of the highest quality. Your transactions will be handled in accordance with our Order Execution Policy available separately on our Website and we will take all sufficient steps to achieve best execution.
- 20.2.6. The actions taken by the Company for the purposes of ensuring best execution, are available within the Company's Order Execution Policy. In respect of Retail Clients, the best possible result is determined in terms of the total consideration.
- 20.2.7. The Company shall apply best execution rules in cases where you have not provided the Company with specific instructions.
- 20.2.8. The prices quoted by us and at which HYCM customers may choose to enter into Transactions with HYCM are derived from price sources from a number of independent information providers processed by HYCM and fed into the Trading Platform. HYCM continually processes the price information from the various information providers and feeds the information into the Trading Platform after validating and authenticating it and adjusting the prices to provide spreads which HYCM considers appropriate in light of market conditions and other circumstances.
- 20.2.9. The prices shown on the Trading Platform and at which customers can enter into Transactions are the prices derived from the sources referred to in Clause 20.2.8. These prices will not be identical to those quoted by or available from any individual information provider or other data source.
- 20.2.10. Any Transaction for the Account remaining open at 5:00pm Eastern Time on the business day such Transactions were entered into are rolled over and adjustments are made to take account of interest rate differentials between the currencies in the relevant currency pair, the direction of the trade and any storage or other fees that are applicable to the Account.
- 20.2.11. Liquidity can affect order execution. When customers place a high volume of orders, order imbalances and backlogs can occur, requiring more time to execute orders. This is because of delays caused by the number and size of orders processed, the speed at which current quotations or last-sale information is provided, and system capacity constraints.
- 20.2.12. The Client accepts that HYCM reserves the right to immediately terminate the Client's access to the trading platforms and/or recover any losses incurred from a Client's Account(s) in the event the HYCM determine in its sole discretion that the Client voluntarily and/or involuntarily undertakes to abuse the negative balance protection offered by us (or in any way which is contrary to good faith or the terms of this Agreement) either on an individual Account, or multiple Account(s) or multiple profiles and/or between one or more Client(s) of HYCM in accordance with this Agreement. For example, a Client hedging his/her exposure utilising his/her accounts under the same or different Client profile would constitute an abuse of the Negative Balance Protection as well as a Client requesting a withdrawal of his/her Client Money - notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Agreement - when the symbol he/she is trading is not available for trading at HYCM during that specific timeframe. It should be noted that this is not an exhaustive list. Where HYCM has determined, in its sole discretion, that a Client or Client(s) have abused the Negative Balance Protection, HYCM may take any action it deems fit, including but not limited to transfer any amount(s) from any Account(s) under any profile, in order to cover the Negative Balance Protection loss.
- 20.2.13. HYCM regularly evaluates the overall quality of its order execution.
- 20.2.14. More about HYCM's Orders Execution Policy may be found online at Company's website.

20.3. Conflicts of Interest

- (a) prevent the occurrence of conflicts of interest, including where necessary declining to carry out an activity, operation or mandate; and
- (b) conduct its business activities in a way which ensures that the best interests of HYCM's clients are followed and strict confidentiality of information is maintained across all HYCM activities which could potentially generate conflicts of interest.

20.3.2. These procedures and controls include administrative and organisational procedures to ensure the proper execution of customer orders, particularly in relation to allocation of assets or financial instruments. Remuneration policies for HYCM employees are specifically designed to prohibit direct profit-sharing success fees for any specific Transaction. HYCM employees are prohibited from trading spot forex and/or CFDs on HYCM.

- (d) In the event that the Client consented for the use of personal data by HYCM for marketing and information management purposes, or to conduct market research for HYCM then HYCM may share these data with other companies in its group or with carefully selected external parties that may use the personal data to bring to the attention of the Client products and services that may be of interest to the Client and also to assist in the efficient provision of services

Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it;

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing of your personal data.

This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent

SCHEDULE 1

Risk Warning Notice

Transactions in Spot Foreign Exchange (“spot forex”) and Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”)

This risk warning notice (the “Risk Warning Notice”) cannot and does not disclose all of the risks of Transactions in CFDs and in spot forex. The purpose of this Risk Warning Notice is to describe the major risks of trading spot forex and CFDs. The specific risks associated with Trading in spot forex and CFDs are outlined within the Company’s Risk Disclosure Statement available on our Website.

General

You should not engage in spot forex Transactions or CFDs unless you understand the basic aspects of such trading and their risks – for example, how positions are opened and closed, how profits and losses are made and the extent of your exposure to risk and loss.

All Forex and CFD trading involves significant risk to your capital. These products may not be suitable for everyone. You should ensure you understand all of the risks and seek independent advice if necessary. Therefore, trading in these Financial Instruments are appropriate only for persons who (a) understand and are willing to assume the economic, legal and other risks involved in such transactions, and (b) are financially able to withstand losses significantly in excess of their initial margin funds and any additional funds transferred to HYCM to maintain their positions. Your potential losses, which depend on movements in the price of the underlying instrument, can exceed any deposit, margin or other amount you have paid to HYCM.

You should be satisfied that spot forex and CFD trading is suitable for you in the light of your financial circumstances and attitude to risk. If you are in any doubt as to whether spot forex and/or CFD trading is suitable for you, please seek independent advice from a financial services professional. HYCM does not provide such advice.

When you engage in spot forex or CFD trading with HYCM you are placing an order in relation to movements of prices set by HYCM as per our Order Execution Policy. Prices quoted to you by HYCM will include a spread, mark-up, or mark-down when compared to prices that HYCM may receive or expect to receive if it were to cover your transactions with, for example, a trade in the forex interbank market. Although dealing spreads are common in the spot forex markets and in markets for certain of the instruments underlying other CFDs you may trade for the Account, you should be aware that the total impact of spreads may be significant in relation to the size of the margin you post and may make it more difficult for you to realise a profit from your trading. In addition, in connection with the automatic rolling forward of spot forex Transactions and spot CFD Transactions that you do not close out, HYCM may impose a rollover fees. You should carefully consider the effect of such interest charges along with spreads, mark-ups, or mark-downs on your ability to profit from trading.

The “gearing” or “leverage” available in CFD and spot forex Transactions trading (i.e. the funds HYCM requires you to provide when a position is opened compared to the notional size of trade you can enter into) means that a small margin deposit can lead to large losses as well as gains. It also means that a relatively small movement can lead to a proportionately much larger movement in the size of any loss or profit which can work against you as well as for you.

You may lose all amounts you deposit with HYCM as Margin. The placing of certain orders (e.g. “stop-loss” or “limit” orders) that are intended to limit losses to certain amounts may not always be effective because market conditions or technological limitations may make it impossible to execute such orders. Please also note that for all orders (including Stop Loss Orders) you may sustain the loss (which your order is intended to limit) in a short period of time.

You have to pay to HYCM all losses you sustain as well as all other amounts payable under the Customer Agreement such as interest. If you decide to engage in CFD or spot forex trading, you must accept this degree of risk.

The potential for profit or loss from Transactions on foreign markets or in foreign currency denominated Transactions are affected by fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Transactions involving foreign currencies, including spot forex and foreign currency denominated CFDs, involves risks not present when dealing with investments denominated entirely in your domestic currency. Such enhanced risks include (but are not limited to) the risks of political or economic policy changes in a foreign nation, which may substantially and permanently alter the conditions, terms, marketability or price of a foreign currency. The profit or loss in transactions in foreign currency-denominated contracts (whether they are traded in your own or another jurisdiction) will also be affected by fluctuations in currency rates where there is a need to convert from the currency denomination of the contract to another currency.

HYCM acts as the market maker and principal to all spot forex Transactions and CFD Transactions executed by you with HYCM. We are not required to continue to make markets in any instrument and may refuse to accept any order in our absolute discretion. The markets HYCM offers (and its prices) are derived from underlying prices quoted in the relevant markets. HYCM has no control over movements in the underlying prices, which may be volatile and unpredictable. Those movements will affect HYCM's prices, whether or not you can open and close a position and the price at which you can do so. During periods of market volatility, it may be difficult or impossible for you to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value of open positions, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. These are among the reasons why Transactions in CFDs and spot forex Transactions involve increased risks. CFD and spot forex trading with HYCM is not conducted on a regulated exchange, and there is no clearing house or other central counterparty which guarantees our payment obligations to you under contracts that you enter into. Consequently, engaging in CFDs or spot forex trading may expose you to substantially greater risks than other instruments which are so traded. You can only look to HYCM for performance on all CFDs and/or spot forex Transactions you enter into with us and for return of any margin. The insolvency or default of HYCM could cause you to lose the value of all positions carried in your Account and could cause you to suffer additional losses from open positions.

As a CFD and spot forex market maker HYCM may have access to information that is not available to you, may have acquired trading positions at prices that are not available to you, and may have interests different from your interests. HYCM does not undertake any obligation to provide you with market or other information we possess, nor to alter or refrain from our own trading.

HYCM's main business is the provision of spot forex and CFD products. Our principal place of business is at 18 King William Street, London, EC4N 7BP. Our registered office is at 150 Aldersgate Street, London EC1A 4AB.

HYCM is authorised and regulated by the UK Financial Conduct Authority.

SCHEDULE 2

Risk Disclaimer

You should note that you may be exposing yourself to risks that fall outside your knowledge and experience and/or which you may not have the knowledge or experience properly to assess and/or control by way of mitigating their consequences for you. Our products are based on highly leveraged margin trading; as with any derivative instrument, such contracts carry a very high degree of risk and trading such instruments may expose the investor to substantial losses as well as gains. The price of the products offered by HYCM may go down as well as up, and under certain circumstances an investor may sustain a total loss of their investment. An investor should make an appraisal of the risks involved in investing in these products and should consult their own legal, financial, tax, accounting and other professional advisors, to ensure that any decision made is suitable with regards to that investor's circumstances and financial position.

Contracts for Difference ('CFDs') are complex financial products that are traded on margin. Trading CFDs carries a high degree of risk. It is possible to lose all your capital. These products may not be suitable for everyone and you should ensure that you understand the risks involved. Seek independent expert advice if necessary. Please think carefully whether such trading suits you, taking into consideration all the relevant circumstances as well as your personal resources. Margined trades can lead to a total loss of the capital allocated for trading. We do not recommend clients posting their entire account balance to meet margin requirements. Clients can minimise their level of exposure by requesting a change in leverage limit. However, lowering the leverage limit will subject client accounts to stricter margin requirements. Speculate only with funds that you can afford to lose.

SCHEDULE 4

Terms applicable to the Trading Platforms

HYCM Trading Platforms

1. No automatic stop orders are placed for you. You can place stop orders but it is important that you understand that you do so at your own risk and that they are not guaranteed by us to be executed. For example, if the market moves through a stop loss price level without trading at it, the stop loss order will not be executed at the stop loss price, but will be triggered and executed at the first available market price.
2. You can hold simultaneous long and short open positions in the same instrument.
3. If your Account equity drops below a certain level established by us in accordance with Clause 4.1, a Margin Call may be sent to you on a daily basis. In addition, hourly alerts may be sent to your Account area on the Trading Platform. HYCM also reserves the right to close all open contracts without prior notice if in our absolute discretion, the circumstances so warrant.
4. When you select the amount, you wish to trade, you cannot see the contract size you will trade. You can only see the volume expressed in our standard lots, or fractions of our standard lots. For example: you can choose to trade 1 lot, or 0.50 lot or 0.02 lot, etc.
5. If your Account balance is well below the margin requirement, established by us in accordance with Clause 4.1 at a level established by us and notified to you (the "Close Out Level") positions will be automatically closed-out by HYCM using the Download Platform to bring the Account above the Close Out Level. Unless otherwise specified, the Default "Close Out Level" is when the account equity drops below 50% of the margin requirement of the open positions. We will first close the position showing the biggest loss. If the Account equity is still below the Close Out Level after that, the Download Platform will close out the position showing the next biggest loss. This will continue until the equity to margin requirement ratio goes above the Close Out Level. If you have multiple positions in many products, it is possible that a position protected by a hedge will be closed first, if the loss on that position is largest. This may cause further liquidations.
6. Unrealized profits will be counted within the amount required under Clause 4.1 to open new positions.
7. "Hedging" is permitted in the Account if you are a Download platform client – that is to say that you may carry in the Account both 'long' and 'short' positions on the same security/instrument.

Protecting your trading platform login credentials:

As a part of our security and confidentiality procedures we would like to reiterate the following guidelines:

- Your user ID and Password is unique and confidential, communicated only to you via the email you have registered with us at the time of opening your account.
- You should not disclose this secure log in information to any other person and must take all possible care to prevent the discovery of your password by any third party.
- You will be fully liable for all transactions made in your account; with or without your knowledge using your online credentials.
- In case of loss or theft of the password or any other log in information, you must notify HYCM immediately.
- Failing to comply with timely notification or late reporting of the theft or loss of log in information shall result in you being accountable for all transactions executed from your account.
- You are strongly advised to change your password periodically and not to use predictable passwords such as your name or birthdays.

SCHEDULE 5

Terms applicable to Stop and Limit Orders

The following terms apply to all Stop and Limit Orders:

We may in our absolute discretion accept an instruction (a "Stop or Limit Order") from you to open or close any Transaction when our quote in respect of the relevant instrument reaches or goes beyond a level specified by you. You may specify that your instruction is to apply for a limited duration or for an indefinite period (a "Good Till Cancelled" or "GTC" Order). If we accept a Stop or Limit Order then, when the level of our current quote reaches or goes beyond the level of your Stop or Limit Order, your order will be executed automatically at the level of your Stop or Limit Order subject to the following: You acknowledge that where the underlying market is moving rapidly our quote may have gone beyond the level of your Stop or Limit Order by the time your order is executed and in particular you acknowledge that if the relevant underlying market opens with a gap from the previous closing price such that our quote has moved beyond your Stop or Limit Order price your order will be filled at HYCM's quoted price derived from the market opening price or the earliest price reasonably available.

You may with our prior consent (and we will not unreasonably withhold our consent) cancel or amend the level of your Stop or Limit Order at any time before our quote reaches or goes beyond the relevant level. However, once the level has been reached you may not cancel or amend the level of your order. If you enter into any Transaction and place a Stop or Limit Order which, when executed, would be capable of closing or partly closing such Transaction and you subsequently instruct us to close that Transaction, or any part of it prior to the level of the Stop or Limit Order being reached, it is your responsibility to cancel the Stop or Limit Order if you do not want the order to remain valid. If you close your original Transaction and fail to cancel the Stop or Limit Order, we shall be entitled in our absolute discretion to treat the Stop or Limit Order as an instruction to enter into a new Transaction for you if and when our quote reaches or goes beyond the level of the Stop or Limit Order.

The following conditions apply to all Stop or Limit Orders:

- a) we will not accept a Stop or Limit Order unless when you instruct us to close part but not all of a Transaction, both the part of the Transaction which you instruct us to close and the part which would remain open if we carried out your closing instruction are equal to or greater than any minimum Transaction size in effect from time to time;
- b) when you instruct us to open a Transaction you must not have committed an Event of Default;
- c) if the Internet session in which you instruct us to open or close the Transaction is terminated as a result of circumstances beyond our reasonable control before we have confirmed that your instruction has been executed by us the Stop or Limit Order shall not take effect;
- d) any Transaction opened by you must be within any credit or position limit in effect with respect to the Account or any Transactions; and
- e) the Stop or Limit Order instruction must be given to us during normal trading hours for the investment in respect of which you instruct us to open or close the Transaction. Details of the relevant trading hours are available on the website.

SCHEDULE 6

Terms applicable to CFDs on listed equity securities

The following terms apply to all Transactions for the Account in CFDs on listed equity securities.

The CFDs we offer on a limited number of listed equity securities give you exposure to changes in the prices of the underlying securities but are cash settled and therefore give you no rights to delivery of any underlying securities.

A. Dividends

A dividend adjustment is applicable if an ex-dividend date occurs for an underlying security with respect to which you have an open CFD. If you have any open long positions, a dividend adjustment will be credited to the Account subject to a service charge of 10% (ten per cent). If you have an open short position, the dividend adjustment will be debited in full from the Account. The dividend adjustment will be made gross, with no adjustment for tax. The responsibility for any tax payable with respect to any such payment is yours.

B. Corporate Events

We will process only the following corporate actions:

- a) Dividends
- b) Bonus shares (very similar to dividends)
- c) Stock splits (only if possible)

If the stock underlying an open position in CFD is subject to any other corporate action (for example; bonus issue, reclassification, subdivision, consolidation, free distribution, scrip or rights issue or similar event) we may upon providing notice to you, close out any such open CFD positions.

In addition, where a takeover offer is made or a change in the composition of the offering of the CFD is required in respect of a company in whose shares you hold an open CFD we may upon Notice to you close out any such open CFD positions. The price at which we close out any such position will be at such price as we establish in good faith in our absolute discretion.

Where a company for whose shares you hold an open CFD becomes subject to any insolvency or analogous event or trading in its shares is suspended for any reason, we will endeavour to reach agreement with you on a closing date and a closing price for the relevant Transaction. In the absence of any such agreement, then that Transaction shall remain open until such time as the shares of the company in question resume trading or the company becomes insolvent or is otherwise dissolved. In each such case, in the absence of agreement between us we shall establish the closing level date and price for any open Transaction acting in good faith.

C. Quoting Prices

In the event that no price is available to us for any security on which we generally quote a CFD price, whether because such security is not quoted on the market on which it is listed or for any other reason, we will not generally quote a price for a CFD on such security. In such event we shall not be liable for any losses arising from any delay or loss caused to you by the price unavailability.

D. Terminology

All references to market terms such as 'dividends', 'take-overs', 'mergers', and other such terms mentioned in this Schedule are intended to be understood as those terms are generally used in financial markets. If any dispute arises our determination of the correct interpretation of such terms in a manner which shall be fair, conclusive and binding.
