HYCM respects your privacy and are committed to providing you with the information and tools you need to manage your cookies. We may store cookies on your device that are necessary for the vital functions of our website and trading platform; disabling these will prevent you from accessing our trading platform as well as other important sections of our website. These cookies make it easier for you to find and access the information you need, and allows us to tailor our website content to suit your preferences.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text stored on your computer when you visit a website. They are not programs and cannot be executed as code or deliver viruses – instead cookies act more like a passport, which the site checks and updates whenever you visit. Almost every site on the internet uses cookies and their functions include:

- Verifying your identity for security purposes
- Determining the type of browser and settings you are using
- Allowing site owners and third-party advertisers to tailor content to your preferences

Our policy

HYCM respects your privacy, and we are committed to providing you with the information and tools you need to manage your cookies.

There are two types of cookie on this site:

- Essential cookies are necessary for the vital functions of our site and trading platform. If these are disabled, you would not be able to access the platform or other important parts of the site
- Behavioural/analytical cookies help us understand the way visitors and clients use our website, so we can provide a better service. We use the data from behavioural and analytical cookies to improve our site and provide individually tailored content. These cookies make it easier for you to find the information you need and allow us to adapt our site to suit your preferences. Third-party companies such as Google provide some of the systems we use to track web traffic and site usage.

On your desktop, laptop or tablet computer, you can choose how to accept cookies by changing the settings in your browser. For information on how to manage cookies on your mobile phone, you will need to refer to your handset manual.

You can block any cookies from any website by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of some or all cookies. However, if you block all cookies (including Strictly Necessary cookies) you may not be able to access all or part of our Websites. If you share the use of a computer, accepting or rejecting the use of cookies may affect all users of that computer. You can also use your browser settings to delete cookies. For more information about how to disable cookies in your browser, please visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

If you have any specific questions or concerns about cookies, please contact customerservice@hycm.com

HYCM is committed to keeping your personal information safe. For more information on how HYCM handles your data, see our Privacy Policy.
